

Due to a major relocation of records in the Kansas City area, some Federal bankruptcy case files will be closed for research while the staff moves them. The following is a list of affected series; the staff will update this list in the coming months. If you have questions about the move or when records are scheduled to be reopened for research, please contact Lori Cox-Paul, Director of Archival Operations, National Archives at Kansas City, (816) 268-8017.
